WALK-TO-SCHOOL DAY

SAVE THE DATE

Rainy weather on the 4th of October moved Idalia School's participation in the National Walk-to-School Day to a sunny day, allowing a beautiful morning walk for staff and students celebrating this national event. Over 100 kids participated in the brisk walk, allowing time for catching up and a little exercise to start the day. The next monthly "Ride-n-Stride" will be held (weather permitting) on November 9 when bicyclists will meet at the Homestead and walkers north of the Outback. Join us for this monthly event. Submitted by Lynne Cody

All community members and veterans are invited to join us for the school's Veterans' Day Program on Thursday, November 9, from 2:45 p.m.-3:30 p.m. in the gym.

VISIONS ANNUAL MEETING

Idalia Vision Foundation is holding its annual meeting on the afternoon of Sunday, December 3, at 4:00 p.m. Please join us for refreshments and the opportunity to hear what's going on in the community. The Board has three positions open for election this year and is accepting nominations. Please contact Judy Wieser (719) 342-1043 or Julie Morris (719) 342-5220 to get your name on the ballot.

Idalia School District RJ-3 is seeking applicants for the following positions:

Substitute Bus Drivers
Junior High Track Coach
High School Track Assistant Coach

Please contact Mr. Johnson for more information.

December Wolf View deadline is November 21.
Please email articles to terrells@idaliaco.us

THOUGHTS FROM THE PRINCIPAL

A few weeks ago, I had the opportunity to fill in for one of Ms. Sayles' afternoon social studies classes as she was gone to coach a junior high volleyball game. It was fun to get back in the classroom, where that day we discussed Americans' form of government: Democracy—both its strengths and greatest challenges. When I taught United States government, I attempted to help my students understand the difference between 'Government' and 'Politics' by offering the following football analogy:

Government is the rulebook whereas Politics is how you play the game. The sport of football has a rulebook (Government), providing the guidelines and framework which outline the manner in which the game is expected to be played (Ex: You will get four attempts to gain a 1st down, which will be located 10 yards from the line of scrimmage (unless of course you play 6-man!), a touchdown will be worth six points and a field goal worth three, etc.). Within the framework that the rulebook provides, different individuals (Politicians) and teams (Political Parties), interpret the rulebook and establish unique philosophies and strategies. While one team may prefer to keep the ball on the ground while adopting the 'three yards and a cloud of dust' philosophy, their opponents sharing the same field of competition may choose to go in an entirely different direction, slinging the ball all around the yard in an 'Air Raid' spread attack. Both of these strategies, although vastly different, are well within the guidelines established by the rulebook that both teams must follow.

The old-timer, football purist may be annoyed, or even downright angry, at the team who spreads the field and throws the ball 20 yards downfield every snap, as this hardly resembles the game he played as a child and grew to love. The fan sitting across the stadium may be frustrated, if not furious, at the team which, in his mind, has failed to adapt to the current game and times and instead hands it off to the fullback for dive after boring dive. Many fans establish particular dislike for the opposing team's quarterback, who they view as excessively flamboyant when he taunts the opposing team and their fans after scoring a touchdown. Their short memory has conveniently allowed them to forget that they were avidly cheering on and encouraging their quarterback as he engaged in similar tactics following last week's thrilling overtime victory.

I told the class in which I was substituting, our conversation surrounding Democracy should not be political in nature

(Should we run or throw the ball on this play?), but rather one focused on Government (those who created football's rulebook, although containing flaws, created something that is beneficial to many). I was attempting to make the point that Democracy is a beautiful thing that we are very fortunate to be participants, if we so choose. While politics can, at times, become emotional and divisive, 'We the People' established a Governmental structure second to none. The Chiefs' fan will continue to discuss all of the Broncos shortcomings. Just as the Broncos fan will kindly remind the Chiefs of their ongoing Super Bowl drought at every chance. The polarizing quarterback's career will come to an end in four short years, replaced by someone else, with his own ideas of how the game is to best be played, along with effective strategies of how to get under his opponent's' skin. The coaches and owners will come and go, as they too are just temporary participants in the game. Through it all, the only constant will be the sport of football itself. Bigger than any trendy offensive scheme or outspoken owner, the sport of football lives on. Bigger than any cocky superstar or team temporarily reigning as Super Bowl champs, the sport of football lives on. For over 200 years, Democracy is the only thing that has proven to be undefeated.

Please excuse my analogy, as my original purpose for this month's update was to discuss government at its most local, and perhaps most pure level: School District's Board of Education elections. I, along with many other involved and interested citizens, recently helped fill the cafeteria to listen to, and ask questions of the five candidates running for the three available Board seats. Adhering to the same advice I gave the students that day by asking them to replace conversation on Politics with conversation surrounding Government, I do not write to endorse or discount our candidates' personal perspectives, motives, or agenda. Instead, I wish to applaud all five candidates for actively participating in our Democracy, albeit running for an oftentimes thankless position. As one candidate stated during the forum, many school districts across the state have no need for Board elections, instead they are out begging, and in some cases, appointing apathetic citizens to the position. I think our five quality candidates are symbolic of our community as a whole. Our community is interested, invested, and involved. Thank you Ken, Paul, Amber, Brandi, and Kyle. Although elections are unpredictable, I already know what the results will be; two strong candidates will unfortunately lose, and the entire community of Idalia will win. Submitted by

ALYSSA JONES—WOLF OF THE MONTH

Alyssa is a 12-year-old 7th Grader. Alyssa is currently maintaining straight A's and her favorite teachers include Ms. Morgan Reese (Ag), Mrs. Kristi Minor (Science), and Mrs. Kylie Chamberlain (PE/Coach). Some of Alyssa's interests outside of school include volleyball, basketball, camping, fishing, hanging out with friends and family, helping her dad out with his plumbing work, pet sitting, and babysitting. Alyssa names her dad, Jesse, as her role models and states, "I look up to my dad because he is always there to help me when I am struggling."

When asked to discuss an accomplishment that she is proud of, Alyssa responded, "I am proud that my 5th/6th grade basketball team made the Championship last year in the tournament." A 'Fun-Fact' about Alyssa is that she admits, "I am very talkative". Alyssa was asked to discuss her future aspirations and shared, "I would like to go college and eventually become a Vet, because I love taking care of animals." Alyssa offers the following piece of encouragement to her fellow students, "Be confident and truthful in who you are."

Mr. Johnson had the following to say about Alyssa after naming her Wolf of the Month: "Alyssa stood out to me this month due to her great attitude, strong academic performance, and overall outstanding character. Alyssa is hard not to like, and I appreciate how she treats her fellow students and faculty members. With Alyssa, what you see is what you get, as she is about as genuine as they come. Alyssa is respectful, friendly, hard-working, and talented. I think others are drawn to her friendly and caring personality, making her a natural leader. Our junior high is fortunate to have her influence for the next few years. Congratulations Alyssa, keep up the good work!"

MOUSE TRAP RACE CARS

The physics class did a project making mousetrap race cars. They were judged on how far their car went and how fast the car went. We used the gym to test the cars and quickly found out that a few had malfunctions like, losing a wheel, going in reverse, or flipping backwards. The races were rather entertaining as no one knew for sure exactly how their car would perform. The team of Crystal Cordova and Daniel Perez won in both distance and speed divisions. Their car traveled 14.7 meters traveling at 1.06 meters per second. Submitted by Madison Wells, Publications Student

Idalia Health & Wellness Committee

Idalia H&W Committee held their first cooking class on October 21. The parents enjoyed spending time with their kids and helping them make ranch dressing and yogurt dips. They all really enjoyed the ranch dressing, but the yogurt dip ended up being the most fun, as the kids let their creativity run wild while creating different dips from a selection of fun ingredients. One yogurt dip even tasted exactly like peanut butter and jelly! It was so much fun and we hope hold another cooking class for the community in the future. Submitted by Chef Jessica Wright

RED RIBBON WEEK KICK OFF

To kick-off Red Ribbon Week 2017, Idalia High School students, along with students from Arickaree and Liberty will meet at Liberty High School to hear Gabe Murfitt speak his

C.L.E.A.R. message. Gabe is an inspiring speaker and author who challenges his audiences to live with courage in the face of life's greatest challenges and adversities. Gabe was born with a disease which stunted his growth and the growth of his joints, standing a little over three-feet high and arms only three inches long, and left him with only 45% of his hearing. Gabe is young man with an amazing story, but he feels his story is not that different than yours. Although born with a unique body, Gabe Murfitt knows every person is a unique design of mind and body who each face their own trials.

SCHOLARSHIP SUPPORT

Carpenter's Mini Mall is donating $100 a month to our scholarship fund. Supporting our local grocery store will also benefit students who apply for scholarships.

All profits from the drink and snack machines and the use of Safeway and King Soopers gift cards are used to fund scholarships for students who apply for them.

Purchasing and using Safeway and King Soopers reloadable gift cards is very easy. Individuals buying these cards need to reload them at the register for whatever amount they choose. Loading this card can be done by using your credit card, check, cash or debit card. The card is swiped just like a credit or debit card. These cards can be used to purchase fuel at Safeway or King Soopers as well as merchandise. You can still use your store card to get store discounts. Safeway and King Soopers donate 5% of all money that is used to load these gift cards to the Continuing Education program.

It is easy to purchase a reloadable gift card and use it at either of the two participating stores. Initial cost of each card is $10 which is already added to the card for you to use. Checks need to be written to Idalia Vision Continuing Ed and can be purchased at the school office.

Perhaps your child has received a scholarship from the Continuing Education in the past; or maybe you have a child that will be eligible to receive a scholarship in the future. Wouldn't this be a great way to show your appreciation for that scholarship by supporting this program? Submitted by Deb Crites

SCHOOL BOARD CANDIDATE FORUM

This year's candidates are Kyle Kite, Brandi Jones, Ken Brenner, Amber Hardwick, and Paul Brittain. On October 19, the school board forum was held in the high school cafeteria. This meeting was open to the public and over 50 people attended and had the opportunity to ask questions to the candidates. During the meeting candidates shared their opinions on various issues that are facing the school district. Tuesday, November 7; is Election Day; make sure you have your ballots turned in!

The 6th-grade, Middle School, and High School bands are selling Coffee and Pure Maple Syrup from October 30, 2017-November 10, 2017 to raise money for their trip to Elitch's in the Spring. See any 6th-10th grade band member, or contact Miss Caron to make your purchase. Thank you for supporting the Music Department at Idalia School!!

ELEMENTARY

Mrs. Wudtke and her 1st grade class have created a festive project for the month of October. Each student created their own Jack-O-Lanterns. The 1st and 2nd graders also participated and attended EzraKeats the Snowy Day play at the Denver Performing Arts theatre. The student enjoyed this experience and hope to attend another play.

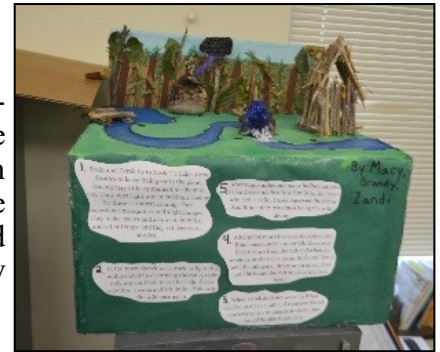

On October 20, the elementary students participated in their first quarterly AR party. The 3rd, 4th and 5th graders played Capture the Flag and enjoyed popsicles for their celebration while the 1st and 2nd graders played minute to Win It games.

FROM THE LANGUAGE ARTS DEPARTMENT

Ms. Zambrano, the Language Arts teacher, has four English classes participating in project building. These classes are experiencing project space learning. Additionally, her high school drama class is working very hard on getting prepared for their upcoming play on December 7. There are five girls and five boys participating in the drama class this semester. Pictured to the right is an example of a project created by Macy Richards, Brandy Henrickson, and Zandi Sloan.

FFA

Ms. Reece and her FFA students have had an extremely busy month. Eight students attended the MFE/ALD Conference in Colorado Springs. This was a leadership conference where the freshmen attended the MFE conference while the juniors and seniors attended the ALD conference. She also took eight students to the National FFA Convention in Indianapolis. They toured the Apple Orchard, Dairy, and Speedway. During the convention they will hear keynote speakers and visit a college business fair.

A SPECIAL THANKS TO . . .

- Roger and Suzy Richards for letting the younger students experience the annual trip to the pumpkin patch
- The parents and students for your participation in the book fair
- Greg Devlin and Chuck Wright for providing the free Lions Club screenings to children

Congratulations Flag Football Champions for the Wray League

GIFTED AND TALENTED

Keilah Dickenson, Krista Wieser, Tate Towns, and Trent Hall attended GT Stem in Limon.

Mrs. Heath and Amber Soehner took the Gifted and Talented students to the GT STEM event in Limon. There were 16 students that attended this event. Theme for the event was World of the Waves. Attendees used inferred cameras, designed bracelets from binary code, and built seismographs. Students from Idalia attending were Keilah Dickenson, Krista Wieser, Tate Towns, and Trent Hall.

Idalia High School Financial Aid Night = Scholarships!

On Thursday, October 12, students in 11th and 12th grades, along with their parents, were invited to our annual Financial Aid Night at the Idalia School Cafeteria. This event was presented by Kellie Overturf from Morgan Community College in Wray. For attending the presentation, scholarships from Continuing Education and a CD from Wray State Bank were given to the students to use toward their secondary education! The two, $250 Scholarships from Continuing Education went to Breann Shaffer and Brandon Kock. The $200 CD from Wray State Bank went to Crystal Cordova. Congratulations! We greatly appreciate the support from Continuing Education and Wray State Bank. Thank you!

The Counselor's Corner

With the conclusion of Red Ribbon Week, I want to reiterate the largest focus of the week: Emotional/ Mental Health. Here are 10 traits of emotionally resilient individuals:

- They know their boundaries.
- They keep good company.
- They cultivate self-awareness.
- They practice acceptance.
- They're willing to sit in silence.
- They don't have to have all the answers.
- They have a menu of self-care habits.
- They enlist their team.
- They consider possibilities.
- They get out of their head.

A helpful site that I came across is <http://www.mentalhealthamerica.net/>. There, you can find help, screenings, and various programs.

Other things that are coming up for November:

I am providing a Counselor Help opportunity for 9th-12th grade students on one Sunday a month to receive help with college applications, scholarship applications, PSAT practice, or SAT/ACT practice. The next opportunity is Sunday, November 12, from 2-4 p.m. in the high school flex area. I hope your child can join us!

8th/9th Grade Career Fair will happen Thursday, November 30. This is an all-day event to learn about various careers, especially ones in our rural area!

FBLA Happenings

FBLA Fall Leadership

Idalia FBLA officers and middle level students traveled NJC in Sterling, Colorado, to participate in workshops to further their knowledge in the FBLA/business world. Some of the workshops that were available were; In vs. Involved, Financial Fit-ne$$, Today is Your Day for an Awesome Resume, Banking on Success, and more. Each workshop focused on one main point of FBLA or just on how to better your career. Members also got a chance to meet and play FBLA Jeopardy with four state officers, including Megan Waitman, our State VP for District 3. Fall leadership conference ended with a closing session by Patrick Grady. Everyone enjoyed their time at NJC and came back with lots of new business skills to bring to their chapter and community. Submitted by Brian Jimenez, FBLA Secretary

FBLA Installation

The Idalia FBLA Installation Ceremony was held Monday, October 16, at 6:00 p.m. in the Idalia High School Cafeteria. The installing officer was Tyler Wiley from Akron, Colorado, FBLA State President. He read over the script with all expectations and responsibilities to each new member and officer. He then declared them as officers of the 2017-2018 Idalia FBLA Chapter. Breann Shaffer was declared President; her responsibilities are to preside over all meetings, represent the chapter at special functions, and show the qualities of a leader. Megan Waitman was declared Vice President; her responsibilities are to preside over meetings in the absence of the president, and assist the president. Brian Jimenez was declared Secretary and Reporter; his responsibilities are to prepare the local chapter Program of Work, prepare and read all minutes of meetings, prepare news release or articles for the local chapter of all FBLA activities, and submit articles to the national publications. Aubrey Richards was declared Treasurer; her responsibilities are to keep accurate, up-to-date financial records, and prepare treasurer's report for each meeting. Installation ended with a delicious potluck dinner. Submitted by Brian Jimenez, FBLA Secretary

FBLA Canned Food Trick or Treat

On October 29 the Idalia FBLA Chapter split into 4 groups and went trick-or-treating for canned food. Groups dressed up in costumes and went around the community to collect canned food goods. Thank you for supporting the Idalia FBLA Chapter with all the donations! Submitted by Brian Jimenez, FBLA Secretary
